

Thurs. Night 27th

Dear Vickie and Jim,

Tonight Mary and I took the wedding present over to Gail and Gregg, and we all just love it. It is the most interesting piece of art and Gail was really pleased over it.

Gail and Gregg have a very nice one-bedroom apartment, overlooking the lake. They have started house hunting as they plan to buy. Gail has been promoted to manager of the catering department so she has started making changes and one woman who worked on bouquets resented taking orders from Gail so much that she quit. Gail was shocked.

Mary is going to do a typing job for some more she knows so she will have her office in her old bedroom. She is going to get 5.00 dollars for it.

Dad went to the office today and felt bad that they had come in second on a 15 Million dollar job in Montana. They were 45 thousand dollars higher than the company that was low.

Friday night we are going to play in a tournament in Seattle and Saturday we will go up to the cabin for the week-end.

One of the prisoners sent me a doll for the bed which is made out of ribbons. It is very pretty but I hate to write to him and thank him because he said he was getting out in August.

We will always think about our perfect times with you.

Love,
Mona.
